Welcome Guest Speaker:

Rev. Brian Holland

Pastor Brian is the pastor of Mt. Etna Wesleyan Church, in Mt. Etna, Indiana. In 2011, the Mt. Etna church was voted to be closed due to declining attendance. Pastor Brian felt the call to leave his position at Chapel Pike Wesleyan Church and lead a refocus effort at Mt. Etna. Pastor Brian is an Indiana Wesleyan University graduate ('98) and has been in ministry for several years. He worked in a stone quarry for almost 10 years as he prepared for ministry while attending IWU. He served as a youth pastor for 20 years, and still loves working with teens. Brian was ordained by the Wesleyan Church in 2001.

He and his wife, Jaye, have been married since 1988 and they have 4 children, Jessica, Wesley, Anna, and Joseph. Brian enjoys watching Chicago Bears football and working on cars. He still has his first car, a 1968 Buick Skylark. Pastor Brian has been at Mount Etna since November of 2011.

ATTENTION MEMBERS: A special session of the Local Church Conference is being called for February 12th immediately following the morning service. This session is to discuss the heating project in the old building. All members are expected to attend!

BABY BOTTLES: The Pregnancy Help Center has delivered more Baby Bottles and if you didn't get one, there are at the Welcome Desk. Take one home with you today and fill it with your spare change and bring it back when its full to help the Pregnancy Help Center. The bottles are due back by the end of March. Thank You!

MISSIONS CONFERENCE: Next week our speaker will be... General Director of Global Partners, Dr. H. C. Wilson. Continue to pray about your involvement in Faith Promise Giving for missions. We currently stand at 88% of last years goal. There are still a couple of weeks to get your Faith Promise in for the current year.

CHILI COOK-OFF: The Chili Cook-off is back. Sunday, February 12 at 6:00 PM in the Family Life Center. The Missions Committee has provided a sign-up sheet for this fellowship event. Sign up to bring chili and/or other items at the Welcome Center. See Sandy Emmett with any questions.
